

Left photo courtesy of Institute on Communication and Inclusion at Syracuse University © Chuck Wainwright

14TH ANNUAL

autism summer institute

Express Yourself: Supporting Communication through the Arts, Advocacy, and Education

DATES & DETAILS

August 6-8, 2012 | 8am–4pm | Grappone Conference Center, Concord, NH

- Professionals: $399
- Students / Parents / Self-Advocates: $349
- Single Day Registration: $150

Visit www.iod.unh.edu/asi for the most up-to-date conference details.

 Join us online! facebook.com/autismsummerinstitute

DESCRIPTION

The 2012 ASI theme is Express Yourself: Supporting Communication through the Arts, Advocacy, and Education. Self-expression is the key to people with autism communicating, learning, achieving their dreams, and having a rich and rewarding life. The conference will feature breakout strands on self-advocacy and leadership, literacy, academic supports, assistive technology, self-expression through the arts, and supported communication; evening film screenings; and keynote presentations by:

- Judy Endow, MSW, International Consultant and Author
- Christy Ashby, Research Director, Institute on Communication and Inclusion at Syracuse University
- Michael McSheehan, Clinical Assistant Professor, Communication Sciences and Disorders, University of New Hampshire
- Julia Bascom, Autistic Self Advocacy Network
- Larry Bissonette and Tracy Thresher from the film Wretches and Jabberers

KEYNOTE PRESENTERS

PARTNERS

Presented by the National Center on Inclusive Education at the UNH Institute on Disability and the Institute on Communication and Inclusion at Syracuse University in collaboration with the Autistic Self Advocacy Network.

INSTITUTE ON
COMMUNICATION AND INCLUSION
at Syracuse University

ASAN
The Autistic Self Advocacy Network

National Center on Inclusive Education
At the Institute on Disability, University of New Hampshire