INTRODUCTORY TRAINING FOR FACILITATED COMMUNICATION

DATES & TIME: April 13, 2010 • 9:00 am – 3:30 pm

LOCATION: Institute on Disability / UCED
56 Old Suncook Road, Suite 2 • Concord, NH 03301

REGISTRATION FEE: $95 (Space is limited to 15 participants)
~ Registration will begin at 8:30 am
~ Workshop materials, continental breakfast, and lunch will be provided
~ Participants in this workshop are eligible for Staff Development Credits

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION:

This workshop will provide participants with a general overview of Facilitated Communication (FC), a method of augmentative and alternative communication used by people with limited speaking abilities. Topics covered will include the history of FC, basic elements of the FC technique, determining candidacy for FC, and a review of current research and best practices. Examples and demonstrations of the use of FC with both school age individuals and adults will be given. This workshop will provide information to people who are interested in gaining basic understanding in FC. It is also a prerequisite for people who will become facilitators for individuals who use FC.

WORKSHOP AGENDA:

- ~ History of FC
- ~ What is FC and who is it for? Definitions and candidacy
- ~ Basic elements of the technique including the role of physical support
- ~ Overview of the training process for FC
- ~ Best practice guidelines for the use of FC
- ~ Overview of research on FC
- ~ Achieving independence and determining success with FC

WORKSHOP INSTRUCTOR: PASCAL CHENG, M.Ed., C.A.S.

Pascal Cheng has a M.Ed. and a C.A.S. in Special Education from the University of Vermont. He is currently an educational and communication specialist for Howard Center Services in Burlington, Vermont, providing training and technical assistance for communication and literacy in both school and community settings. He has been an FC trainer and consultant for over ten years and serves as a member of the Vermont Communication Task Force, a group that works to improve communication supports and services for individuals with developmental disabilities in the state of Vermont.
